Hush! Somebody’s Callin’ My Name

Brazeal Dennard

The Xavier University Concert Choir of Louisiana 1929-2010

Hush. Hush. Somebody’s callin’ my name.
Oh, Hush. Hush. Somebody’s callin’ my name.
Hush. Hush. Somebody’s callin’ my name.
Oh, my Lord, Oh, my Lord, what shall I do?
what shall I do?

Soon one morning, death come creepin’ in my room.
Oh, Soon one morning, death come creepin’ in my room.
Soon one morning, death come creepin’ in my room.
Oh, my Lord, Oh, my Lord, what shall I do?
what shall I do?

I’m so glad, got me religion on time.
Oh, I’m so glad, got me religion on time.
I’m so glad, got me religion on time.
Oh, my Lord, Oh, my Lord, what shall I do?
what shall I do?

I’m so glad trouble don’t last always.
Oh, I’m so glad trouble don’t last always.
I’m so glad trouble don’t last always.
Oh, my Lord, Oh, my Lord, what shall I do?
what shall I do?

Ave Maria

Franz Biebl

English translation, sung in Latin

The angel of the Lord made his annunciation to Mary and she conceived by the Holy Spirit.
Hail, Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee.
Blessed art thou among women,
and blessed is the fruit of thy womb, Jesus.
Mary said: Behold the handmaiden of the Lord.
Let it be unto me according to Thy word.
And the Word was made flesh and dwelt among us.
Holy Mary, mother of God, pray for us sinners.
Holy Mary, pray for us, now and at the hour of our death, Amen
Lo! he comes with clouds descending, Once for favoured sinners slain;
Thousand thousand saints attending Swell the triumph of his train:
Alleluya! Alleluya! Alleluya! God appears, on earth to reign.
Every eye shall now behold him Robed in dreadful majesty;
Those who set at nought and sold him, Pierced and nailed him to the tree,
Deeply wailing Deeply wailing Deeply wailing Shall the true Messiah see.
Yea, Amen! let all adore thee, High on thine eternal throne;
Saviour, take the power and glory: Claim the kingdom for thine own:
O come quickly! O come quickly! O come quickly! Alleluya! Come, Lord, come!

The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want;
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: He leadeth me beside the still waters.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil:
For you are with me, you will comfort me, you are with me, you will comfort me.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life:
And I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Where charity and love are, God is there.
Christ’s love has gathered us into one. Let us rejoice and be pleased in Him.
Let us fear, and let us love the living God.
And may we love each other with a sincere heart.
As we are gathered into one body, Beware, lest we be divided in mind.
Let evil impulses stop, let controversy cease,
And may Christ our God be in our midst. And may we with the saints also,
See Thy face in glory, O Christ our God: The joy that is immense and good,
Unto the ages through infinite ages. Amen.

Collect

God of love,
you called Saint Katharine Drexel to teach the message of the Gospel and to bring the life of the Eucharist to the Native American and African American peoples;
by her prayers and example,
enable us to work for justice
among the poor and the oppressed, and keep us undivided in love
in the eucharistic community of your Church.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, for ever and ever.
Primera Lectura
First Reading

Entonces se salvará tu pueblo.
At that time your people shall escape.

Lectura del libro del profeta Daniel
En aquel tiempo, se levantará Miguel, el gran príncipe que defiende a tu pueblo.
Será aquél un tiempo de angustia, como no lo hubo desde el principio del mundo. Entonces se salvará tu pueblo; todos aquellos que están escritos en el libro. Muchos de los que duermen en el polvo, despertarán: unos para la vida eterna, otros para el eterno castigo.
Los guías sabios brillarán como el esplendor del firmamento, y los que enseñan a muchos la justicia, resplandecerán como estrellas por toda la eternidad.
The word of the Lord. Palabra de Dios.

Responsorial Psalm

Salmo Responsorial
Salmo 15

You are my inheritance, O Lord.
El Señor es el lote de mi heredad y mi copa, Mi suerte está en tu mano.
Tengo siempre presente al Señor, Con él a mi derecho no vacilaré. R
And so, my heart rejoices, my soul is glad; even my flesh shall rest in hope.
For you will not abandon my soul to hell, nor let your holy one see corruption. R
Me enseñarás el sendero de la vida, Me saciarás de gozo en tu presencia,
De alegría perpetua a tu derecha. R

Thanks be to God.

By one offering he has made perfect forever those who are being consecrated.

Con una sola ofrenda Cristo hizo perfectos para siempre a los que ha santificado.

A reading from the Letter to the Hebrews

Brothers and sisters:

Every priest stands daily at his ministry,
offering frequently those same sacrifices
that can never take away sins.

But this one offered one sacrifice for sins,
and took his seat forever at the right hand of God;
now he waits until his enemies are made his footstool.

For by one offering
he has made perfect forever those who are being consecrated.

Where there is forgiveness of these,
there is no longer offering for sin.

Palabra de Dios. The word of the Lord.

Todos/All: Te alabamos, Señor.

Acclamation before the Gospel

Velen y oren, para que puedan presentarse sin temor ante el Hijo del hombre.

Be vigilant at all times and pray that you have the strength to stand before the Son of Man.

Marcos 13, 24-32
Mark 13:24-32

Congregará a sus elegidos desde los cuatro puntos cardinales.
He will gather his elect from the four winds.

The Lord be with you. El Señor esté con vosotros.

All/Todos: And with your spirit.

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark
Lectura del santo Evangelio según san Marcos

All/Todos: Glory to you, O Lord.

En aquel tiempo, Jesús dijo a sus discípulos: “Cuando lleguen aquellos días, después de la gran tribulación, la luz del sol se apagará, no brillará la luna, caerán del cielo las estrellas y el universo entero se conmoverá. Entonces verán venir al Hijo del hombre sobre las nubes con gran poder y majestad. Y él enviará a sus ángeles a congregar a sus elegidos desde los cuatro puntos cardinales y desde lo más profundo de la tierra a lo más alto del cielo.

Entiendan esto con el ejemplo de la higuera. Cuando las ramas se ponen tiernas y brotan las hojas, ustedes saben que el verano está cerca. Así también, cuando vean ustedes que suceden estas cosas, sepan que el fin ya está cerca, ya está a la puerta. En verdad que no pasará esta generación sin que todo esto se cumpla. Podrán dejar de existir el cielo y la tierra, pero mis palabras no dejarán de cumplirse. Nadie conoce el día ni la hora. Ni los ángeles del cielo ni el Hijo; solamente el Padre”.

All/Todos: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

SAINT KATHARINE DREXEL

The Drexel household was a happy one, in a large but simple home at 1503 Walnut Street, Philadelphia. Francis Anthony Drexel was hard working and a successful banking partner with his brother, Anthony. Emma M. Bouvier Drexel, his wife, proved to be very loving, faith-filled and a caring parent to their three daughters, Elizabeth, Katharine (Katie) and Louise. It was here that these young women realized that their lavish wealth was to be shared, not only with neighbors in need, but also with Missionaries throughout the world who were serving the poor and destitute.

When they moved to the Torresdale section of Philadelphia they befriended Fr. James O’Connor, pastor of the Church of Saint Dominic. Soon he was ordained a bishop and sent to Nebraska. His pastoral work to the Native Americans made it necessary for him to seek financial help from the Drexel family. Kate, now known as Katharine, who was following the plight of the native groups, saw the injustices they were suffering at the hands of the federal government. She noted as well, the severe racial injustices and torture of black people in the South, for whom she grieved. Clearly, priests were needed for both races to offer pastoral care and spiritual conversion to Christianity. On one of her final trips abroad, she begged and was granted an audience with Pope Leo XIII to make a request for missionary priests. The Holy Father, asked her to personally become a missionary which sealed her own desire to enter Religious Life. On her return to America, at the suggestion of Bishop O’Connor, she went to the Novitiate of the Sisters of Mercy in Pittsburgh, PA in May, 1889, at age twenty-nine.

She entered for the purpose of founding a new congregation which would serve the Native and African American people, tending especially to their conversion to the Catholic faith. Her deep love for the Blessed Sacrament was at the heart of her mission. She would not only take the three vows of Chastity, Poverty and Obedience, but a 4th vow of Service to the “Indian and Black Races”. While in the Novitiate, Katharine gave focused attention to her personal religious development and even excelled, but often reflected on her past visits to the Native Americans, and to Sioux Chief Red Cloud. Her novice director, Mother Mary Inez, RSM guided her toward her goal and also helped in the formation of 10 novices and 3 postulants who would travel with her to their own Novitiate in Cornwells Heights, PA. When Mother Katharine professed her vows, February 12, 1891, in the presence of Archbishop Ryan of Philadelphia, the Foundation of the Congregation of the Sisters of the Blessed Sacrament became a reality.
As a consecrated religious, Mother Katharine Drexel, SBS wasted no time in moving onward to the West and South establishing missions. By 1940, more than 30 Foundations were made in seventeen states, where 400 of her sisters were serving. These great accomplishments happened in spite of the challenges of the Great Depression, vicious activities of the KKK and the challenges of World War II. These hardships compounded with the fierce winters, long, arduous journeys which Katharine continued to make, all contributed to her declining health. Her final years came after several heart attacks which then confined her to the Motherhouse, which she called “her little Nazareth”. She lived there from her 84th year until her last breath. She died peacefully at age 96 on March 3, 1955.

“All is vanity except knowing, loving and serving God. This alone can bring peace to my soul.”

Mother Katharine lived these very words, the heart of her spirituality. The Church recognized her holiness, which was confirmed by two miracles or cures to persons not able to hear, attributed to God through her intercession. She was beatified November 20, 1988 then canonized a saint on October 1, 2000.

St. Katharine Drexel, pray for us.

The Sisters of the Blessed Sacrament Today

In February 1891, St. Katharine Drexel, listening to the desires God placed in her heart, professed vows of poverty, chastity and obedience, and became the first Sister of the Blessed Sacrament. Today, the Sisters of the Blessed Sacrament continue to vow themselves to God through a free and total gift of self. They remain faithful to the mission Christ has entrusted to them – to prayer and service among the Black and Native American people.

The Eucharist is at the heart of the Sisters of the Blessed Sacrament’s Charism and Mission. Through the gifts of community and service, they are called to address the hungers of the world and to share the bread of their lives in a spirit of generosity, joy and gratitude. The desire to effect unity and community among all peoples impels them to oppose all forms of prejudice, racism and oppression.

Since the beginning of the Congregation until today, the Sisters’ trust in God’s faithfulness and goodness continues to empower and energize them each day. The spirituality of the Sisters is enriched and strengthened by partnering with diverse cultures of people who share their lives and love with them - a mutual blessing.
